A RESOLUTION concerning

The Bertina Nick Historical Classroom

FOR the purpose of naming the Historical Classroom at the Stanton Center the Bertina Nick Historical Classroom; and all matters relating to said naming.

WHEREAS, Bertina Nick was a community activist, whose spirit and energy helped to renew the Clay Street Community where she resided and led the Clay Street Development Corporation; and

WHEREAS, a consummate public servant, Bertina served on many City committees, but her passion was personal – she actively promoted responsible parenting, community involvement, and, especially, education; and

WHEREAS, Bertina led by example, working her way out of public housing and an aborted secondary education into a meaningful life as an independent, self-sustaining college graduate; and

WHEREAS, as a member of the Stanton Center Committee, Bertina influenced public policy

1 about the renovated facility and championed the establishment of the Historic 2 Classroom, which captures the spirit of the historically African-American school 3 which she attended;
4

5 NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE ANNAPOLIS CITY COUNCIL that the 6 Historic Classroom at the Stanton Center be named the Bertina Nick Historic Classroom and 7 that the classroom be formally dedicated to Bertina's memory at the five year anniversary
8 celebration of the renovated Stanton Center on July 9, 2005;
9

10 AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL THAT this resolution shall be 11 effective on the date of its passage.
